

Christian Parker

Cover for Parker's new compact disc

Area musician releases CD

A "release party" for Canton resident Christian Parker's new compact disc will take place 8 p.m. April 15 at the Canton Club, Court Street.

The CD, a 13-song compilation, is entitled "Christian Parker."

Parker will perform with Alex Vangellow, Rob Zolner and Manson Glover at the party. Guest performers will include Barb Heller and Michael Welch.

The public is welcome. There is no charge.

Parker will also be featured between 8 and 9 p.m. April 18 on WVNC-fm, 96.7.

In addition to five new songs, Parker has remixed what he views as the best songs from his 1990 album "Through the Darkness" and 1991's "Wonderland." The CD will be used as a tool for soliciting Parker's material to independent and major labels.

Songs on the CD include "Long, Long Shadow," "Road to Recovery," "Keep No Secrets," "Straight to the Bottom of My Heart," "Leaving Train," "Lighthouse," "Never Know 'Till You Try," "Innocent Eyes," "Gone But Not Forgotten," "Don't Give Up," "All My Love," "Sometimes" and "Wonderland."
